NOTICE To Herald Subscribers

The fact that Herald carriers now own their own delivery routes and collect for the papers they deliver need not interfere in any way with the way you have been accustomed to pay for your Herald.

Carriers are authorized to collect in advance, by the week, month, quarter, half-year or year.

Subscribers who wish to pay in advance for three months. six months, or one year, may pay the carriers or at The Herald office, and will receive the usual discounts for such advance payments, which are as follows:

THREE MONTHS, IN ADVANCE .. $2.50 SIX MONTHS, IN ADVANCE.....$4,75 ONE YEAR, IN ADVANCE...... AN ACEL AND

Any carrier entrusted with a Herald route is a reliable boy. We trust him and you may trust him to account accurately for whatever advance payment you wish to make. While the boys own their own routes, thus increasing their earnings, and improving the service to subscribers. The Heraid Is behind every boy in his delivery business, and guarantees accurate accounting for every payment made to the boys by subscribers.

The plan of weekly collection is for the convenience of subscribers who do not wish to pay more than one week in advance. Any subscriber may pay as mayn weeks in advance as may be desired, up to three months, when discounts for advance payments become effective, as in the past, and on the terms stated above. When such advance payments are made the carrier earns his percentage the same as on all other payments made to him.

The Herald heartily appreciates the cordial cooperation subscribers have given the boys in the past two weeks, while they have been getting started under the new system. It is now working smoothly and you mak look for a steady improvement in the delivery service.
